BELMONT PARK'S LAST DAY

RACING AT HEADQUARTERS TERMI-NATES FOR THIS YEAR.

Nealon Triumphs Grandly-Salvidere Falls Lame in His Race-Champion Steeplechase Goes to Coligny.

New York, October 19.—The highest class of racing for the season of 1907 came to an end with the close of Belmont Park today. Cool and clear weather prevailed and with one possible exception the attendance was the greatest of the present meet-ing. In at least the clubhouse patronage and the smart set it far surpassed the record of any other day of the year.

spread a foot in the Belmont Park Au tunn Weight for Age Race and went back to his stable limping painfully. Both hind legs were heavily swathed in bandages before being sent on heavily swathed in bandages before being sent on his long journey and the injured member was tightly strapped and bound to prevent the very thing that happened. It will be the consensus of opinion among trainers that the Brighton Cup victor lacked sufficient preparation for today's race. William Dubois, owner of Nealon refused an offer of $20,000 for his great horse before the big race. The identity of the intending purchaser was not revealed, but it is current report that he was no less a personage than A. J. Cassett, Jr.

The first race was won by Mr. John Sanford's personage than A. J. Cassett, Jr.

The first race was won by Mr. John Sanford's Sir John Johnson under circumstances that might well have excused his defeat. Soon after the start, Monopolist bolted, struck him and almost knocked him down. But the game colt rallied, got into his stride again and, in a fast finish, won from Monopolist by two lengths. Monopolist was disqualified, giving second place to Carrollton and third to Rosimiro, both of which ran good races. Sir John Johnson is evidently a colt of more than average speed and likely to prove a fine three-year-old next speed and likely to prove a fine three-year-old next

The rich Champion Steeplechase drew but four starters and, except for a good finish between Collguy and Mr. McCann, was not of the interesting character heretofore attending its decision. Collgny was saved for two miles and a half, then nighty was saved for two miles and a half, then moved up with Mr. McCann and, after a severe drive, drew out decisively at the end. Sheriff Williams failed to stay the long and trying route, but saved third place far behind the two leaders.

The tabulated history of the Champion Steeple-chare is no followery.

Plentiful withdrawals left but eight in the White Plains Handicap. The Squire was made a slight favorite over Falcada, but when it came to the running, the latter proved best and, in a fast three-quarters, won from The Squire with a margin of two lengths in his favor. The Squire, however, of two lengths in his favor. The Squire, however, ran a good race and, in finishing in front of two such fast fillies as Lady Winifred and Julia Powel, fully vindicated his recent good form. Julia Powel showed great speed in pacemaking for five furlongs, but rather surprisingly failed to stay and gave way for third place to Lady Winifred. Falcada is a good and improved colt.

The running of the Belmont Park Autumn Weight for Age Race served to show what a superb race-horse Nealon is at present. He was second choice to the Brighton Cup winner, Salvidere, and, after a slow mile and a half had been run, noved up and, after forcing a faster pace from Ironsides, went into the lead in the stretch and won in a canter in time that has only twice been excelled in this country and once equalled. Ironsides ran canter in time that has only twice been excelled in this country and once equalled. Ironsides ran the race of lifs career, but was no match for Nea-lon. Salvidere fell lame and Running Water ran so poorly as to suggest she has not recovered from her great race in the Brighton Cup.

The last race of the day, a mile dash, fell to Oraculum, with the long shot Troublemaker a good second and Rockstone third, the real feature being the rather poor showing of the favorite Wes, which, however, was somewhat unlucky.
The sporting sweepstakes between the three ponies. Orton Dobbie, Cloisteress and Mand Magnum lost its chief attraction by the withdrawal at the last moment of Larry Waterbury's fast little filly Cloisteress. Elliott Cowdin rode his celebrated polo pony at 240 pounds. F. Osgood Pell had the mount on Maud Magnum. Clubhouse betting on the pair opened at 4 to 5 and take your pick. What wagering ensued was confined chiefly to Orton Dobbie, which finally closed at 2 to 5 as against 6 to 5 the other starter.

MR. JAMES R. KEENE'S PETER PAN, B. C. 3, BY COMMANDO-CINDERELLA, BY HERMIT,

Peter Pan, although several times beaten, was, up to the time of his injury and retirement for the ar, unquestionably the best three-year-old of 1907. That is saying a great deal of a colt of a year in Peter Pan, although several times beaten, was, up to the time of his injury and retirement for the year, unquestionably the best three-year-oid of 1907. That is saying a great deal of a colt of a year in which such other grand young racers of that age as Ballot, Salvidere, Frank Gill, Electioneer, Montgomery, Gold Lady, Dinna Ken and McCarter formed a collection probably unequalled in any other year of American turf history. But he is a superb colt of great speed, a stayer and a weight carrier of high class and when right demonstrated conclusively that he held the others safe, good as they are.

As a two-year-old Peter Pan was in the first flight and winner of the Surf Stakes at Sacepshead Bay, Flash Stakes and Hopeful Stakes at Saratoga and a purse. In the Hopeful Stakes he carried 130 pounds and ran three-quarters in 1:124, a great performance. He was second to Water Pearl in the Double Event and third to Salvidere and McCarter in the Saratoga Special. He ran fifth in the Futurity with 127 pounds up when not at his best. He went into winter quarters with the reputation of being a good colt, but not the equal of Salvidere or Electioneer.

pounds up when not at his best. He went into winter quarters with the reputation of being a good colt, but not the equal of Salvidere or Electioneer.

Peter Pan's first start this year was for the Withers Stakes. To the surprise of all concerned Frank Gill beat him out by a neck in 1:40. All carried 126 pounds and Saracinesca was third. His next start was for the Carlton Stakes at Gravesend. He was beaten again. This time his conqueror was Dinna Ken, but he had to run the mile in 1:38½ to do it, breaking the track record. He carried 111 pounds to Peter Pan's 122 and won by a half length. Charles Edward was third. Then Peter Pan won the rich Belmout Stakes from his stable mate, Superman. Frank Gill was third. It was 126 pounds for all, with no time taken. The timer started his watch at the wrong place. Next he took the Standard Stakes from Electioneer and Flip Flap easily, one and one-quarter miles in 2:05%, and won the Brooklyn Derby over a heavy track in 2:41 from Paumonok, Yankee Girl, Frank Gill and Oran. In the Tidal Stakes it was easy for him to defeat Hickory and Paumonok in 2:07% for the mile and a quarter, but in the first running of heavy track in 2:41 from Paumonok, Yankee Girl, Frank Gill and Oran. In the Tidal Stakes it was easy for him to defeat Hickory and Paumonok in 2:07\(\frac{2}{2}\) for the mile and a quarter, but in the first running of the Coney Island Jockey Club Stakes, at a mile and a half, he ran unplaced to Frank Gill, Montgomery and Salvidere. He had up 129 pounds and led for a mile and a quarter, but severe racing with Salvidere told and he unexpectedly tired. Then he redeemed himself in the Advance Stakes by running away from Salvidere, Flip Flap, Montgomery, Running Water and two more, one and three-eighths miles, in 2:20. His last and greatest race was for the $25,000 Brighton Handicap, in which, carrying 115 pounds and giving weight to everything in the race, he ran a mile and a quarter in 2:03\(\frac{2}{2}\) and won from a crack band of the best handicap horses in this country, McCarter, 101, being second and Montgomery, 109, third. He was hurt in this race and it was deemed best to turn him out and give him time to recover for a camaign next year. His splendid record now reads:

Today's was Coligny's fourth attempt to win the Champion Steeplechase. On one occasion he fell with victory practically in sight. This was at Morris Park. Howard Lewis, manager of the Widener stable of jumpers, said that Coligny jarred himself seriously in landing after the first jump.

Davy Johnson's commission on Nealon was $5,000. Dubois backed his horse it is said for $10,000 and had the biggest day of his career.

Jesse Lewisohn, who recently underwent a severe operation and is still confined to the hospital, sent a commission of $5,000 to Belmont Park to be wagered on Monopolist in the first race.

LEXOLINE TAKES HANDICAP

BEATS GOOD FIELD IN THE LATONIA FEATURE WITHOUT TROUBLE.

Please Bests Colonel Bob in a Rousing Finish -Itacatiara Wins Steeplechase-J. Lee Pilots Two Winners.

Cincinnati, O., October 19 .- To-day's Latonia racing program was made up of seven numbers, and, having a good class of horses entered, was appreciated by racing enthusiasts, and a banner attend-nce was present at the course.

Lexoline again showed his consistency by carry-Lexoline again showed his consistency by carrying off the $1,000 handleap at a mile and a sixteenth, after leading for the entire trip. Monsignor, under a hard drive, taking second place from Polly Prim. With equal racing luck both would have beaten Lexoline. Monsignor in addition to receiving a hard kick while at the post from Hardshot was subjected to much interference in the first three-quarters. He returned to the scales bleeding profusely from the side where Hardshot had kicked him. Polly Prim was in a pocket to the stretch turn, where she was forced to go wide to obtain clear sailing, and this cost her the purse. Shilling on Granada was held mostly to blame for the interference that took place and was fined $100.

Please, on which Lee had the mount, and Colonel

Please, on which Lee had the mount, and Colonel Bob, ridden by Shilling, furnished a spirited finish in the race succeeding the handicap. The recently arrived easterner was a slight choice and won the purse, but by such a slight margin as to leave doubt of his superiority over the Hayes colt. The latter was conceding Please thirteen pounds today, and was not ridden in the best possible manner.

C. Koerner's desperately hard rides on Hazelthorpe and Hazel Patch were instrumental in gaining the purses for them in their respective races. Hazelthorpe was probably the best-backed favorite during the afternoon, but Shilling on Fay almost threw Hazelthorpe when he pulled across while in the lead. Hazelthorpe had to come from a long way back in the stretch to get up in time to win out.

In the last race it was a desperate drive of three

In the last race it was a desperate drive of three for the entire stretch run, Hazel Patch just lasting to win by a nose from Carew. Miss Strome, the early pacemaker, was only a head back of the pair. The steeplechase went to the suddenly improved Itacatiara, which showed much speed, and never left the issue in doubt. The field during the early stages ran fairly well bunched, Class Leader, which won so impressively in his last race, being today's trailer. At the stretch obstacle Itacatiara parted company with the others and won cantering. War Chief fell after negotiating the last jump and broke his neck. His rider, W. Allen, escaped with a broken collarbone and a bruised leg. Jockey Yourell on Class Leader fell off conveniently after the finish, and his great show of having sustained injury prevented question for the time being from the judges about his poor ride.

Rough riding was responsible for Boserrian in the second having his off hind leg almost cut in two.

Melzar was decisively beaten in the fifth, the purse going to the inconsistent Arrow Swift.

Jockey T. Koerner was suspended for six days by the starter for disobedience at the post.

George Borkel bought Rosebloom from R. C. Tucker after the filly had run in the sixth race.

"Rome" Respess shipped his band of Dick Welles yearlings from his Woodlawn Farm and the youngsters will be put through their early paces at Latonia. A Maceo colt was injured in transportation. Respess has applied for fifteen stalls at New Orleans where he will race a dozen horses. He will Bob Augustine was sold at private terms to J.

Blum, acting for the Mexican government. Mr.

Blum said that the Mexican government had purchased over 300 mares in foal to good stallions and that a good crop of thoroughbreds for racing purposes would be in evidence in Mexico in a few years.

END OF THE WINDSOR MEETING.

Detroit, Mich., October 19.—Today was getaway Detroit, Mich., October 19.—Today was getaway day at Windsor. It marked the close of the racing season in these parts for 1997 and a large crowd took advantage of the fact to witness the sport. Large fields went to the post in a majority of the events and the finishes in four of them were of the driving order. Just half of those of the events and the linishes in toot of those were of the driving order. Just half of those carded in the feature race, the Belle Isle Handicap, were scratched. The winner turned up in Cooney K., which showed keen speed at all stages and won in a canter after making most of his own pace. The Valley Farm Stable looked to hold a powerful hand in Denham, Charlie Gilbert and Glimmer, but seratched all three and rumor had it that there was some little dissatisfaction over the weights which the handicapper bad allotted Edward Trotter again furnished two of the win-Edward Trotter again furnished two of new bin-ners in Willis Green and Rather Royal, both of which were ridden by the stable jockey, More-land. Willis Green was favorite in the betting while Rather Royal was the best liked outside of while Rather Royal was the best liked outside of Restoration in his race. Emergency was supposed to be a good thing in the opening event, rumor having it that Ben Evans contemplated winning both the first race and the stake with this horse. Coupled with Florentine, as an entry, the Evans pair was heavily played, but when it came to the running neither one of them cut any figure. Klein, who had the mount on Emergency, put up a weak ride and, entering the homestretch, elected to take his mount very wide and lost two or three lengths by this move. Klein's ride was unsatisfactory to the officials and he was called into the stand after the race for an explanation. Niblick, the winner, forced a terrific pace all the way and won eased up at the finish from Showman. The steeplechase furnished a sensational finish between The Chef and Dacra, in which the former won by a matter of inches.

the former won by a matter of inches.

In the sixth race the favorite, Andalusia, closed with a great stretch run and beat out Sombrita.

SLIEVE GALLION TO GO TO HUNGARY.

Purchaser of Great English Colt Saves His Country $50,000.

The sale of Slieve Gallion to Mr. de Szemere created much surprise, and means a gain of £10,000 to the Hungarian Government, writes the Buda-Pesth correspondent of the London Sportsman. I have already announced that the Hungarian gov ernment was eager to secure a first-class stallion or a horse in training with classic pretensions to replace some vacancies at the Stud Kisber. Slieve was offered to the government, and the price of the horse was said to be £25,000. The government hesitated to outlay so much money, but after consideration at last consented, and sent orders to secure the horse. On the evening of the same day Mr. de Szemere wired to the government that he had succeeded in securing Slieve Gallion for £15.000, and is willing to sell him to the government at the same price after his racing career is He (Mr. de Szemere) is to pay all training, traveling, insuring, etc., expenses. The eventual winnings of the horse he offers to the Hungarian Rifle Association, only the amounts he may win in betting on the horse he will keep. This generous offer was promptly accepted. Mr. Weiser, chief veterinary surgeon of the Stud Kisber, inspected Slieve Gallion, and, passing him sound, the sale was effected.

Mr. de Szemere, who saved the government £10,is a wealthy nobleman, descending from one of the oldest Hungarian families. papers called him "Baron von Szemere" and "Herr yon Szemere," neither of these being correct. He is "Mr. Miklos Szemere de genere Huba," or, shortly, "Mr. de Szemere." Huba was one of the chiefs (Chief Arpad being their head), who guided from Asia the tribes of the Hungarians years ago. Chief Huba is the ancestor of the family "Szemere de genere Huba," there being also other people carrying the name Szemere without being "de genere Huba." Mr. de Szemere is the state of the one of our keenest sportsmen, a heavy bettor, a cool winner, and even a cooler loser. He buys the most expensive yearlings, even in Germany, wants them, and is a generous supporter of target practice and of all marksmanship in Hungary; altogether an all-round sportsman. We are wanting one or two more like him.

ARCADIA TRACK'S FAST WORK.

Pasadena, Cal., October 19.—Contractor Allen, now well into the work of building the new Santa Anita racing plant at Arcadia, says that it is certain to be ready-with unfinished corners unneces sary for actual racing—by Thanksgiving day. new course will be the first in the world with electric lights in the horse stalls. Sixteen candle power incandescents will be placed in the stalls, and six power lamps will be stationed at the out-

Of the race course itself Mr. Allen says: "This track is on a sandy bottom, over which will be spread a dressing of a foot and a half of irrigating silt and earth from vegetable gardens. Twenty thousand cubic yards of silt will be used, which will be soaked in water, and then rolled, insuring a fast, clean track, from which the water will run off so quickly that a fast and light track will quickly succeed the heaviest rains."

CROKER STABLE NOT IN GOOD SHAPE.

London, October 19 .- Mr. Croker's horses at Newnarket have been coughing lately, both Rhodora and Hayden being among the sufferers, and it was particularly hard lines that the former, which Dr. McCabe had got quite to his liking in the matter of condition, should have become affected, as he entertained high hopes of her winning the Middle Park Plate. The horses are recovering gradually and are to be put into work again forthwith, but if all does not go well with them they will be sent back to Ireland as soon as they are fit to

There are great hopes that Orby will stand training all right next year, and consequently the last has not been seen on a race course of Orme's very, good son

THE ARROWED ON A RAMPAGE.

Cincinnati, O., October 19 .- J. S. Hawkins' consignment of seven racers reached here from Louisville and his imported English stallion, The Arrowed, recently put in training again, caused a great deal of commotion when he broke loose from insecure box stall, became furious and required almost an army of stable hands to subdue He was finally conquered by a well-directed blow with a club in the hands of a giant groom. While on his rampage the stallion demolished several buggies attached to mares and came near to causing Green B. Morris, seated in one of the vehicles, to sustain severe injuries.

ALFRED NOBLE IS RETIRED FOR 1907.

New York, October 19 .- Trainer Peter Wimm announces that he will retire the two-year-old colt. Alfred Noble, for the winter, as he wants to him for a vigorous three-year-old campaign. Noble started five times and was victorious twice. But he did not come up to the expectation of his owner when he met the crack two-year-olds in stakes.

WINDSOR CROWD TO BRANCH OUT.

Detroit, Mich., October 19 .- The management an nounced that many improvements would be made on the Windsor plant before next spring. The Highland Park Club contemplates branching out be-fore another season and, according to rumor, they will require another Canadian track besides a winte plant in Cuba.

Winner—B. c, by Sorcerer—Hanoverine (trained by G. M. Odom).

Went to post at 4:45. At post 6 minutes, Start good. Won handily; second and third driving. Oraculum, from a flying start, quickly established a small lead and maintained it throughout, winning finally going away fast. Troublemaker, crowded to the rear early, closed an immense gap into a fast and game second in a remarkable effort. Rockstone broke well, but was on the extreme outside and fizished boring out under the judges' stand. Wes got away slowly, was forced to the outside throughout and was unable to fet up. Chief Hayes broke slowly, took an outside route all the way and finished close up and going fast. Pretension is improving and was a forward contender for seven furlongs. Beanclere, nearly left, closed a tremendous amount of ground. Gild can do better.

Winner—B. f, by Woolsthorpe—Hazeldean (trained by G. C. Baker).

Went to post at 2:27. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Liazelthorpe, nuch the best, had to be to win. She was sharply cut off after going a furlong and forced far back, then gained steadily and, finishing with a rush through the last furlong, got up in the last stride. Fay, away fast, cut sharply across in front of the others soon after the start and, taking a long lead, he'd sway to the final strides, where she tired slightly. Ben Strong raced into contention early, but tired after going a half. Anna Smith was prominent most of the way and ran a good race. Bert Osra had no mishaps. Melting is worth remembering and put up a good performance. Boserrian was jumped on and badly cut down. The winner was entered for $700; no bid.

Scratched—71461 Miss Padden, 99; Alleyne, 100.

Lexoline, lucky all the way and well ridden, showed the most speed throughout, stood the final drive yamely and won with something to spare, but tiring. Monsignor began slowly, but saved much ground on the turns and came with a great burst of speed in the closing drive. Polly Prin suffered from interference and was forced to go wide into the stretch and but for this might have won. Jersey Lady was prominent all the way and ran a good race. Judge Treen had no mishaps. Edwin Gum closed a big gap in the last half. Old Honesty ran poorly and can do much better. Granada dropped out after going a laif.

Winner—B. f, by His Highness—Charm, by Cheviot (trained by J. W. May).

Went to post at 3:20. At post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second and third the same. Please broke fast and showed a good flight of speed for a half, but tired slightly in the stretch and barely lasted long enough to win out. Colonel Bob put up a good performance, gained steadily on Please and, in the final furlong, seemed the winner, but Shilling stopped whipping and the colt faitered slightly in the ciosing strides. Pinkola had no mishaps and ran well, but was not good enough to beat the first pair. Catherine F. ran a good race and closed a big gap in the last furlong. Ethel Carr was never dangerous. The others were outclassed.

OAKLAND STABLES FILLING UP.

Oakland, Cal., October 19 .- A number of promi nent owners who will race here the coming winter have reached the track in the last day or two their horses. William St. Vincent in yesterday from Seattle, with J. C. Clem, Dutiful, Constanza, Mike Jordan, Ambitious, Cheripe, Marianna, Miss May Bowdish and Huachuca. W. D Randall is here from Butte with his string, con W. D. sisting of Sea Air, Benvolio, Leighton, J. Kneal, Berryessa and Ostler Joe. In the same car were Menden, Nettie Hicks and Emma Reubold, be-longing to F. Farrar. E. L. Gregory sent Sprintand Lady Adelaide in the Randall car, and O. P. Romigh was represented by his bad-acting Atheling mare, Kumiss.

C. C. McCafferty's horses are here from Seattle. They are David Boland, King of the Mist, Nine Spot, Ed Davis, Water Thrush, Tejon, Frank Rose and Collis. McCafferty arrived several days ago and has been trying to secure stable room for the horses, but so far has only been able to secure temporary quarters at the track.

J. Ramsey has fired and turned out Grass cutter. The St. Carlo mare will not be seen the races until the latter part of the meeting Ramsey has Horatius, the seven-year-old Oddfellow horse, which has not raced since Frank Skinner had him here two years ago. The bay horse is oking good and acts as if there were a number of good races in him yet.

Captain Rice has his good horse Rightful, brother to the great race mare, Endurance by Right, in splendid condition and will enter him in some of the early handicaps.

B. Morris, according to present plans, will only have two horses here this winter, Ziney, a two-year-old non-starter, and Mystifier, one of the best two-year-olds now at Latonia.

J. B. Respess will not send any horses here, having decided to rest his horses up during the

HOW RACING GOES IN PERSIA.

According to M. Eustace de Lorey, who spent some years in Persia as an attache at the French Legation, and who has recounted his impressions the eastern country in a recently published book, horse racing in Persia must be a queer sport, indeed. The Shah (together with his court and the diplomatic body), makes it his business to attend the principal meeting, and extraordinary to relate, always owns the winner. How this becomes possible is explained in the following terms by the author;

The meeting takes place at the back of th castle of Dowshantepeh. Marquees are erected liped with handsome velvets and silks. That of the Shah himself is red outside. It is erected on the top of a little natural rise of stones. His Ma jesty sits in an armchair with a telescope, like au admiral's, whilst all his court is standing behind, except the Grand Vizier, who stands by his They have to stand thus for several hours. side. horses, instead of running short distances as they do in Europe, run sometimes ten or fif teen miles, which makes the race very dull, and as difficult to follow as a yacht race. This is why dancers and musicians are performing in front of the Shah during the race. As soon as the horses have passed the Royal tent in each the dancers begin again, though occasionally the Shadow of God takes a squint through his telescope at the progress of the race.

When the horses are coming round at the last lap, everyone gets frantically excited, though it is always a horse belonging to the Shah which wins. Men with sticks are waiting near the winning post to stop any other horse which threatens legitimate result. If by any chance they fail to stop it, the unfortunate owner is obliged by etiquette to present the horse to His Majesty, in order that the winner may belong to the Shab in the orthodox way."

LUZERNE'S PRIX DE CONSEIL RACE.

The $25,000 Prix de Conseil Municipal was run at Paris, France, October 6, and won by H. Andre's English-bred bay mare, 5, Luzerne, by St. Simonian—Hardie, which was ridden by J. Rauch, the American. Biniou was second and Moulins La Marche was third. All were French Moulins La Marche was 3 to 1 favorite owned. and Luzerne 31 to 1 second choice. The withdrawal of Velocity left Baron L. de Rothschild's Radium s the only English candidate. He was 30 to 1 in the betting and ran fourth.

The course was soft and Luzerne won by two lengths, the mile and a half in 2:49\(\frac{2}{3}\), and two lengths between second and third, Radium being four lengths worse off.

The jockey list of the race suggested an American race card. Among the riders were Ranch on winner, O'Connor, Henry, L. Spencer, J. Reiff, McIntyre, Cormack and Taylor.

BLAIR ATHOL'S SUCCESSOR.

Great Scot, a veteran race horse, has been given Blair Athol's box at the Cobham, Kent, England, Stud, and is a remarkable animal in many ways. The Sporting Life says of him: "Blair Athol was oubtedly the best son of Stockwell, and Prince Charlie probably the best son of Blair Athol. Lochiel, by Prince Charlie, was an absolutely first class race horse in Australia, and right on the top of the three as a sire. Great Scot is the best son of Lochiel, and his dam is Scotch Mary, by Clan Stewart (sire of Georgie, winner of the Prince Edward Handicap and the Cambridgeshire in 1898), another Prince Charlie horse, so that we get very close inbreeding to the most successful development of Blair Athol blood. In color, temper and general characteristics Great Scot is a Blair Athol, and it would be impossible find a sounder horse or one with better constitution. There was reason to fear that the Blair Athol line was going to be lost to this country, but this stalwart representative of it will soon make good his

The horse raced in England this season and last and though seven years old won three out of ten

AN INCIDENT OF THE RACE TRACK.

"He was the kind of chap who is never know to have more than three dollars," writes A. B. Smith in the New York Telegraph, "at one time, and he could cut to the ace infallibly, 'in his sleep,' the boys said, who occasionally fell so low as to make a small touch. Nobody ever saw him win a bet, yet he talked horse incessantly and posed as a pedigree sharp. No one will ever know how it happened, but when, at Belmont Park, Dorante won the Nursery at 50 to 1, he was there 'Now he surely will loosen up,' said one of the trio who gathered around the lucky one near the cigarstand. But there was no movement in that direction as he counted over his twenties and tens. 'Well, ain't you going to buy a drink?' finally burst out one of the thirsty three. 'I'm not drinkin,' craftily said the winner as he tried to edge away.

'You're not drinkin'. Well, I'm "Then the speaker reverted to type—the type of other and vastly different times. He seized

He seized the unwilling winner's hand, took all the money, peeled off a twenty, returned the balance to him, and taking an iron grip on his arm, marched him up to the bar.

"'You need a drink worse than anybody I ever saw and I'm going to buy,' he said. 'Give us a a quart and have it cold."

"The lucky one's protests were drowned in the laughter of his fellows and the line against the bar eyed the jolly party enviously.

"When the quart had gone the way of all good things, the chief of the party paid, gave $5 each to his two friends, pocketed $5, and then said a few forceful words to the backer of Dorante in an undertone which evidently impressed that gentle

"All this happened at Belmont Park and ther was no complaint and no one was pinched. But then it may make a good fellow out of a bad one, for as the great and good philosopher Mulvaney said of his high-handed reformation of Deersley, a remonstrince may change the chune of a man's life.

KEENE STABLE ENGAGEMENTS

The Keene horses which are entered in various stakes at Jamaica and Aqueduct embrace the three-year-olds Ballot, Zambesi, Cabochon, Gretna Green and the two-year-olds Restigouche and Red Bonnet. The only older horse engaged is Suffrage. Everyone of these can run fast and as an aggregation should suffice to put the Keene stable winnings for the year well across the $400,000 line, only a trifle over $12,000 being now required

FRENCH IDEAS OF BETTING PROFITS.

A Parisian racing writer in the London Sporting Life says of the mutuel betting at Longchamps where the Prix de Conseil Municipal was run: "The eight per cent deducted from the betting on Prix day, about $475,000, realized about $38,000 for division in various ways. Your bookmakers in England, would. I think, like to have such a profit as this on one of their bad days. Surely the English government and the English race societies might combine to inaugurate some system whereby a fund could be obtained for national purposes from racing. The bigoted views of your legislators are past comprehension

BIG WINNINGS BY ENGLISH STABLES.

The London Sportsman of October 10 confirms The London Sportsman of October 10 confirms Daily Racing Form's figures on the Duke of Portland's 1889 stable, and says of other English stable winnings since that year: "Other huge totals of recent years have been $164.633, by Lord Derby last year; $219.825, by the Duke of Westminster in 1899; $233,870, by Mr. L. de Rothschild in 1896; and $188,370, by Mr. McCalmont in 1894."

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Tom McCreery will conduct a public training stable at Belmont Park this winter.

Miltiades has been nerved, and it's a question whether the speedy Meadowthorpe colt will be of much future account. Thomas G. Stevenson has leased the running qualies of Duke of Roanoke, bay colt, 2, by Hamurg—Shansheen, to H. P. Whitney.

A leading English critic writes of Maher that he is "the most perfect jockey to ride a non-staying horse, his knowledge of pace being superb."

ing norse, his knowledge of pace being superb."

Dr. Keith, who was seen in many races through the field this season, has been sent to Lexington, Ky., and will be turned out on Jack Baker's farm.

J. G. Oxnard has leased the running qualities of Alloy, the chestnut filly, 2, by Golden Garter—Roseling, to W. H. Brooks for the rest of the year 1907.

The Washington Jockey Club will make its Washington

The Washington Jockey Child will make its Washington Cup race true in fact as well as in name this year, by giving plate to the value of $200 to the winner of the race.

The Enquirer says that it is more than likely that the eastern style of betting will be tried out at Latonia during the last week of the meeting and that if it proves satisfactory to the public, it will be the only way to bet next season in Kentucky.

W. Clements, the champion lightweight jockey of South Africa, landed in England on October 6. He can ride at ninety-three pounds, and several fine judges who have carefully watched the methods of this little lad, believe him to be the cleverest lightweight since Fordham.

It is worth mentioning as a coincidence that three Radiums ran October 6 on the continental tracks of Europe. The English Radium ran in the big race at Longchamps, a French Radium, a three-year-old by Ragoisky, won the Prix d'Octobre at Marseilles and an Italian Radium won the Prix del Prato at Milan.

ORACULUN 4-1, WON

was Saturday's Free Form Special.

Grand Special.

Grand Special

goes Saturday, Oct. 26. Our last Grand Special was True Wing, 8 to 1, which finished second. This was wired our customers Saturday, October 12.
and here is what the Chicago Tribune's correspondent said about it the next day:

"The largest coup attempted at this meeting failed when Thomas H. Ryan's True Wing ran second to Barney Schreiber's Deutschland in the sixth race Saturday. The Wagners, Sam and Ed, came down from Chicago with bushel baskets to take away the bookmakers' bank rolls. And they would have pulled it off, too, if Deutschland had not run to the top of his form. From 12 to 1, straight, they backed True Wing down to 3s."

Next Saturday's Special comes from a source just as reliable. The horse should be a good price, and we believe a sure winner—price, $2.00. Send your subscription early.
